Fatherhood: Communication Devotion

Welcome to this companion devotion for our blog post on fatherhood and communication. These Bible passages and thought-provoking questions are designed to help you engage with the Scriptures, as well as, observe, understand, and apply God's Word to your life. We pray this devotion will inspire and motivate you to consider the benefits of applying the truth of each passage and grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior.

1. What is one piece of valuable advice your father passed down to you?
2. As you read through Deuteronomy 6:5-7, what do you observe about the importance of talking to your kids about the things of God?

Deuteronomy 6:5-7 (NLT)

"And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up."

Psalms 78:4-7 (NLT)

"We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders. . . so each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles and obeying his commands.”

Proverbs 22:6 (NLT)

“Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.”

3. How do modern generations view God’s word—especially in light of raising kids?
4. In what specific ways are you leading your children on the right path?
5. How can telling your children about God’s miracles and mighty wonders help spark deeper communication in your family?
