

PAUL NEFF

Creative Conversations for Couples

Sometimes, it's hard to know what to talk about, especially after a long day at work. Try these conversation starters for meaningful dialogue and thought-provoking questions. You might even be surprised at some of the answers!

1. What is your idea of a nice quiet evening at home?
2. What is your idea of a great night out on the town?
3. What in your life today brings you the greatest sense of joy and fulfillment?
4. When do you feel the most loved?
5. In what ways do I show you how much I truly appreciate you?
6. How does it make you feel when we pray together?
7. What is one thing you wish we had more time for in our lives?
8. When do you feel the closest to me?
9. What is the single most important thing you need from me right now?
10. How can we slow down our busy lives?
11. What do you think I need most from you?
12. Do you feel there are any unresolved issues in our relationship?
13. What one possession do you most cherish?
14. What is the craziest thing you ever did on a whim?
15. If we look at our marriage as a garden, what are some areas that need watering?

16. If you could have witnessed any Biblical event, which one would you choose?
17. Do you feel that I tend to show favoritism toward any one of our kids?
18. In what ways do you think we have a great marriage?
19. How do you feel I could improve my listening skills?
20. On a scale of one to ten, how would you rate our marriage?
21. What is your idea of a truly romantic moment?
22. What is my most irritating habit?
23. What intrigues you most about me – my accomplishments and performances, or my personality and character?
24. How would you like our lives to be different?
25. What is your greatest fear about growing older?
26. What do you feel is our family's greatest strength?
27. What do you feel is our family's greatest weakness?
28. At the end of our lives, how do we want to be remembered?
29. If we could have two days to spend alone together, how would you like to spend them?
30. What is one small thing I can do for you on a daily basis to let you know how much I love you?